From the Church Intelligencer.

Another Letter From Bishop Atkinson.

TUNBRIDGE WELLS, July 24, 1866.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CHURCH INTELLIGENCER.—My Dear Sir: We reached London on the 28th. of June, and on the next Sunday attended morning service at St. Albans, Brook street, Holborne. This is one of the most advanced of the Ritualistic Churches in this country, and the mode of worship adopted there enables us better to understand the innovations which this school is introducing into the services of the Church. There is nothing very peculiar in the building itself, except that the chancel is screened by a railing from the space occupied by the congregation, and is entered by gates which are shut when the services terminate.—The Robes of the Priests, however, differ from anything in use, for at least three hundred years. Gown and surplice are altogether discarded, and in their stead we see gorgeous vestments of green and gold, called, I believe, Dolmatic and Chasuble. The service is, of course, choral, the Psalms are chanted, and the Prayers intoned. This however is not unauthorized, nor is it unusual in England, having always been maintained in cathedrals, and in some of the larger churches. But that which is unusual is the burning of lights on the Altar, and the use of Incense. During the whole service, boys are swinging censers in the Chancel, censing the Priests, and pouring out volumes of smoke, which circle around the chancel, and escape into the other parts of the building. Hymns and Anthems are also introduced into the service, some of which, addressed to the Virgin Mary, and others in honor of the Sacrament, appear to verge on Idolatry. The sermon was not liable to exception in point of doctrine, being an exposition of the Gospel for the Day, which declares the blessedness of those who suffer for rightcousness's sake, the preacher applying it, as might be expected, to himself and his party. Their sufferings however have not been very great so far. The populace does not interfere with them, as it did some years ago, and Convocation has censured them very gently, acknowledging the excellence of their motives, and the influence they have excited in drawing a good many careless people to the Church. I believe it is felt in England, as, I am sure it ought to be there, and as well in our own country, and I apprehend, throughout Christendom, that there is a greater and much more pressing danger than that even of perversion to Rome, the danger of sinking into infidelity. I fear this is greatly increased among the educated classes of this people. I understand that the young men of Oxford and Cambridge are very much under the influence of irreligious writers. In the former University, this has been somewhat checked of late by the effect produced by the sermons of Mr. Liddon, whose learning, depth of thought, and cultivated eloquence make him, at present, a power in the Church of England. Still the literature of the day is unfavorable to Faith. The two men who have most sway over thought and opinion in this country are Mr. J. S. Mill, and Mr. Carlyle, and these are rather boastful of their want of orthodoxy. The Periodicals which are most read reflect similar views, and I apprehend that in society they are very common, and openly expressed. At the same time, powertul efforts are making for the religious welfare of the people. New and handsome churches are being built in every direction, and all that I have attended, whether new or old, Ritualistic or Evangelical, seem to have full congregations of decorous, and at the same time, earnest worshippers.

In the evening of my first Sunday in London, I went to hear St. Bishop of Oxford preach a charity sermon at St. James's, Piccadilly. He is regarded as perhaps the best preacher, and one of the ablest men in the Kingdom. His eloquence is extemporaneous and his manner animated. Having a letter to him, I made his acquaintance at the time, and have received much kindness from him since. At his invitation I went to attend a Conference of his Clergy in the city of Oxford, but I was detained so long in London, that the Conference had closed when I reached the College where it was held. I visited, however, the Ashmolean Museum, where I saw many Roman and early English Antiquities, such as the finger-ring of Alfred the Great and the watch of Queen Elizabeth, and also passed some hours in the Bodleian Library, which, however, to be examined to much profit would require weeks, or months. As it was vacation, I stayed but a short time in Oxford, hoping to visit it again during Term.

On my second Sunday in London I went down with the Bishop of Oxford to attend service at Hornsey, one of the villages near London which the Metropolis is opening its monstrous jaws to swallow up, and which in a few years it will have made a part of itself. At present it is a beautiful rural spot, and the church and rectory, and I may add, the clergyman, are admirable representatives, in their respective departments, of the Church of England. The sermon, which was delivered by the Bishop of Oxford, was, as might be expected, very able and interesting. At night I went to the special service at Westminster Abbey. It was held in the nave of the Church, which was crowded to its utmost capacity. The congregation, in its numbers, and in the fullness of the volume of sound, with which the anthems and hymns were sung, resembled one of those camp-meetings I remembered to have attended in my youth, although in order and decorum, and I may add, in knowledge of music, it was very different. The service was indeed one of the most impressive I ever attended. The Church is the most beautiful, and one of the grandest in England, and was, as I have said, crowded with an intelligent and apparently devout congregation. The music from a Choir of some fifty men and boys, with fine voices and thoroughly trained, accompanied by an organ of great power, and occasionally sustained by the voices of hundreds, perhaps thousands of the worshippers, rose among those grand old arches over our heads, like melodious thunder. The service was, of course, choral, and it is well to go to one of these special services at Westminster Abbey, or St. Paul's, to know what a choral service is capable of effecting. Any at a parish church is tame and feeble compared with it. The sermon, without being very original or powerful, was animated and impressive, and like the one I had heard in the morning, was extemporaneous so far as not to be read from a manuscript. It seemed to me however to be precomposed as to its diction, which was not the case with that of the Bishop of Oxford.

On the next Sunday, I heard Dr. Goulbourn, both in the morning and afternoon. His sermons were such as might be expected from th author of those admirable writings, which ar so generally and justly admired in America, as well as in England. Indeed, if I am not much mistaken, one of the sermons I heard, belonging to a series on the Lord's Prayer, will before long form a part of a volume, intended to elucidate and enforce the Divine Lessons taught us in that Blessed Formulary. My strength has improved so much that I did not hesitate to go to a third service at night, again choosing Westminster Abby. There by the kindness of Canon Hawkins (well known in our country as Secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, but who is now one of the Clergy of the Abbey,) we had tickets admitting us to reserved seats near the pulpit, and were able to hear with more comfort, a sermon of considerable power from Mr. Miller, a leader of the Evangelical Party. The choice of preachers at these special services is made by the Dean of Westminister, (Stanley,) who being a Broad-Churchman, prefers a broad basis for the religous instruction of the people, and therefore invites men of every school in the Church to fill the pulpit of the Abbey, e. g., Dr. Pusey on the one hand, and Mr. Miller on the other. Dr. Pusey, however, I understand, declined.

I must now bring this letter to a close, but in doing so, I feel authorized to say a few words in regard to my health. I have continued steadily to improve ever since reaching this country, but as I felt my first business was to secure for myself, and thereby for those to whom my services are due, the greatest amount of benefit to my constitution which I could obtain, I determined to visit some watering-place for that purpose. In doing this, I was recommended first to consult Sir Thomas Watson, one of the most eminent of living physicians. After examination of my case, he took the same view of it which had been taken by my friend and physician at Wilmington, Dr. W. G. Thomas, and indeed by the physicians generally whom I had consulted, that is, that there was no disease in the structure of any of the organs, but debility in the action of several. He therefore recommended me to come to Tunbridge Wells and drink its Chalybeate Waters, which are the more invigorating, because surrounded by a peculiarly healthy and beautiful country. I followed his advice and here I am. Hoping soon to write again,

I remain yours, T. A.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Tack Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as to its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. C. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell. And would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E. R. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

To the Editor of the New York Tribune:

SIR:—Please allow me space to say that the special dispatch from Washington, which appeared in the Tribune of the 14th inst., does great injustice to my impressions of the state of affairs in North Carolina.

I did not "report" that "the reconstructed openly and defiantly insult Union officers in the streets." I saw no disposition on the part of any respectable person in Raleigh to act discourteously toward Union officers; for myself, I have to acknowledge many acts of the most obliging kindness.

It is my belief, too, that the freed people of all classes are as kindly treated in central North Carolina as they are in any portion of the late slave States.

With reference to the Union people who once had slaves before the war, no truthful account can be otherwise than gloomy. Immediately after the collapse of the rebellion, men of all parties in the South supposed that the government of the United States would give its confidence and extend the fullest protection to the men who adhered to the Union during the war. This expectation was so reasonable that the rebels could not object to it, and the Union men, encouraged by it, commenced the organization of a party in North Carolina.

The election of the rebel candidate, Gov. Worth, over Gov. Holden and his administration, supported, as it has been, by the Washington authorities, destroyed these hopes and this party. The consequence is that a few Union men have consented to become the tail of the rebel kite, and have gone to Philadelphia to witness the reconciliation of those who were never enemies. They, like the Northern Union men who have gone to the same place on the same errand, will be heard of as Union men no more. Those who have declined the alliance with rebels are disheartened, and have not the courage to adopt the only course now open to them, affiliation with the Union party of the Northern States and the extension of the ballot to all. When they do this they will commence an organization for success.

JOHN M. PALMER.

ZANESVILLE, OHIO, Aug. 15, 1866.

We publish the above letter, to show that we were right in denying that Gen. Palmer authorized the publication of the dispatch, upon which we commented several days ago. We thank him for the prompt denial of the derogatory statements in regard to our people. But we take back the declaration that he is not a Radical. The last two paragraphs of his letter demonstrate that he has been ploughing with Mr. Holden's heifer, and has been misled, either by him or some one else.

There was no visible attempt at organizing a Union party in North Carolina, after the cessation of hostilities. Politically offensive as Mr. Holden had made himself to the people of North Carolina, before, during, and after the war, until he was made Provisional Governor, still, when he announced, in his first proclamation, that he would forget the past, that he should know no party, and had no enemies to punish or friends to reward, and fully endorsed the loyalty of our people, our citizens universally resolved to pursue the same policy towards him. At that time, and after, he declared that there was but one party in the State; that our people were all for the Union. But when the people found that he had forgotten his pledges, was manifesting a purpose to secure his own political ends, and was dispensing his favors with a partial hand, they abandoned him. When they determined to elect Mr. Worth, instead of Mr. Holden, it was because they believed Mr. Worth more consistent, more loyal, more sound, as a Union man, than Mr. Holden. It is a want of confidence in Mr. Holden, and not opposition to the Union, that has guided the people ever since. No man in North Carolina has been objected to because he was and had been a consistent Union man; and we challenge every Radical in the land to disprove the assertion. Men have been objected to in this State, and are still objected to, because they are Holdenites, because they sanction his course and would promote him politically. That has been until recently the sole platform, which has divided our people. Now, the issue is broader. Three-fourths, if not nine-tenths, of our people, are opposed to Radicalism, as well as Holdenism. They are all for the Union; but the great body of our people are for such a Union as President Johnson and the Philadelphia Convention propose, while the Holdenites and Radicals are for such a Union as the Radicals offer the South.

A Good Movement.

We learn that quite a number of our colored population, who are disposed to work and make an honest living, are leaving the middle section of the State, where the lands are poor and unproductive, and are settling on the rich lands in the Eastern Counties, to be employed as laborers, where their labor will pay well. We are glad to record this movement. It is an indication of good sense and of an unwillingness to remain idle or unprofitably employed. We repeat, what we have often said, that all that the whites of the South require to revive their former interest in and attachment to the colored race, is the manifestation of a disposition to return to regular, systematic labor, and to aid in developing the resources of the country, in order to its speedy recuperation. If the South ever recuperates, it must be by hard work. Our colored people are inured to work, and the exhibition of the disposition to go at it in good earnest will revive the hopes of our desponding people. Such a course will bind the whites to them with hooks of steel. Our people are anxious to employ them, and will more than pay them for their labor.

Charles Sumner, one evening last week, was serenaded by a colored band. The senator did not put in an appearance.

THE RADICAL organ in this city admonishes the "Unionists of the North and West," not to conclude, if there are but few or no delegates from North Carolina in the Jack Hamilton Sneak Convention, (or "Loyalist" Convention, as it calls it,) in September, that, therefore, "the real Union feeling among our people has died out." If this is not tantamount to an unequivocal endorsement of this movement, language is without significance. Sanction of the objects of the Convention is, of course, an approval of the address under which it is proposed to be convened. We have that address before us, and make the following elegant extracts to show the wholesale libels upon the President and his own people to which Mr. Holden has thus committed himself:

"We relied confidently on the sense of justice and gratitude of the loyal citizens of the United States, through their Senators and Representatives in Congress, to guard, in the most effectual manner, our future peace and security against the malevolence, vindictiveness, hate and disloyalty of the late rebels. This confidence we believe has not been misplaced. We relied, too, as we had a right to rely, on the earnest and efficient co-operation of the Executive of the Nation, placed in power by the great Union party of the country because of his supposed devotion to the Government, and his abhorrence of treason, and desire to see "intelligent, conscious traitors" punished and made disreputable. We confidently expected his hearty co-operation with the political department of the Government in providing such governments, in the States lately in rebellion, as would protect the country from conspirators, in official positions, against its peace; and secure to loyal citizens life, liberty and property, together with the inestimable privilege of impressing upon the minds of others his conscientious convictions of truth, by speech, or through the medium of the press. We also had reason to hope that the freedman, as well as the loyal white man, in the South, would find ample protection for all his rights as an American citizen, by actual military force if necessary, until equal laws and corrected public sentiment would place them on a firm and enduring basis. In these hopes, predicated on the oft repeated declarations of the President, we have been grievously disappointed—cruelly deceived."

* * * * * * * * *

"They have proved faithless to every pledge and obligation however sacred, both before and since the rebellion. The most solemn oaths are used by them as a mere cloak for treachery; and magnanimity and mercy, on the part of an outraged government and its friends, are impudently and insultingly derided the moment they are relieved from dread of punishment.—No history furnishes an example of such incorrigible guilt and shameless mendacity."

"One other step and they will have placed themselves forever without the pale of forgiveness. The fiat has gone forth. The people of the United States have resolved that this shall be a government of freedom and equal rights for all; and woe to those who shall hereafter resist this solemn judgment."

If this latter clause does not mean that it is the purpose of the Convention to force negro suffrage, and negro equality, upon the South, it means nothing. And yet Mr. Holden, and the Washington and Henderson county squads, endorse the movement! Let the people mark this and remember it!

THE Standard very plainly intimated, the other day, that if the people re-elected Gov. Worth, (as they certainly intend to do,) it would amount to nothing; that the Radicals would unfrock him and remand the State back to military or provisional rule. We have no doubt if the Radicals can do so they will, and we have no doubt that the Standard desires it and is pledged to the Radicals to do all it can to promote it. It is so full of malice against its own people, because they would not elect the Editor, that it will do all it can to put them under military despotism. Of course they will love Mr. Holden the more for it.

But, if these things are to happen, why is it he is so anxious to run opposition to Gov. Worth? Does he want to make tools of Gen. Dockery, Capt. Settle and Mr. Dick, or others, simply to beat Gov. Worth, when Mr. Holden may be made Provisional Governor again? That looks like it. One thing is certain, if Gov. Worth has opposition, whoever runs will be under the auspices of Mr. Holden. Mr. Holden will chiefly be concerned in getting him out, no matter who he is, and the Standard will support him. We shall therefore brand any man, who may run, as a Holdenite, and we will make it stick to him like "the shirt of Nessus." The poor man that Mr. Holden rides will exclaim, "O! wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from the body of this death."

But if the Radicals are certainly to succeed and will restore military rule, as Mr. Holden avers, why so anxious to run a candidate against Mr. Worth? Why so anxious to punish his friends?

WHILE THE ADDRESS of the National Convention contains no allusion to the iniquitous Test Oath, in so many words, the whole tenor of it is absolutely conclusive that the unanimous sense of the Convention was in favor of its immediate repeal. The Declaration of Principles demands the prompt admission into Congress of "loyal" representatives. The Address, which is merely an elaboration of the resolutions, asserts the "loyalty" of the South in the most emphatic terms. The President endorses the entire proceedings and designates them a second Declaration of Independence, and a second Proclamation of Emancipation from the shackles with which so large a portion of the people are bound.

Here is what the Address says:

"We do not hesitate to affirm, that there is no section of the country where the Constitution and laws of the United States find a more prompt and entire obedience than in those States, and among those people who were lately in arms against them."

* * * * * * * * *

"The concurrent testimony of those best acquainted with the condition of society and the state of public sentiment in the South—including that of its representatives in this Convention—establishes the fact that the great mass of the Southern people accept with as full and sincere submission as do the people of the other States, the re-established supremacy of the national authority, and are prepared in the most loyal spirit, and with a zeal quickened alike by their interest and their pride, to co-operate with other States and sections in whatever may be necessary to defend the rights, maintain the honor and promote the welfare of our common country."

Radical Meeting in Washington.

The Standard publishes the proceedings of a Radical meeting, which professes to have met at Germanton, Washington Co., N. C. We are pretty well acquainted with the localities in Washington county, but we had not before heard of a cross road or locality called Germanton. There is a place called Germanton in Hyde, but none that we are aware of in Washington county. Moreover, this is the first instance we have known of a county meeting appointing delegates for that county and for an adjoining one at the same time, to say nothing of appointing one for the State of Maryland! This little meeting of "loyalists" or traitors to the Constitution of the United States fully endorse the platform of the Radicals. The following are the delegates appointed. We put them on the record:

"The following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Philadelphia Convention the 3d. September; J. W. Wynne, M. C. McNamara, E. H. Willis, J. J. Rea, H. R. Furniss, Samuel P. Woodley, Jno. B. Chesson, Jr., Alexander M. Phelps, J. A. Melson. And the following gentlemen were appointed from Beaufort county: U. H. Ritch and W. M. Cherry; and M. Bowen, of Maryland, formerly of this County."

THE SIGNS of the times are encouraging and auspicious. The action of the late great Convention has had a tremendous effect upon popular sentiment at the North. The friends of Constitutional Union are buoyant, hopeful, active, while dismay and consternation are everywhere visible in the Radical camp.

The people of the East and the West, the Centre and the South, will take up the movement which the Convention so wisely prepared for them; for in its triumph at the elections lies the only hope of the peace, unity and prosperity of the country in the future. If it fail, the Union will have failed; republican liberty, regulated by law, will have failed; and either despotism, like that of the old dynasties of continental Europe, or disintegration, like that which distracts the Southern half of our own continent, will ensue,—the former bringing grinding oppression, and the latter commercial ruin, wars of races and sections, and universal chaos.

THE SOLDIERS.—The Standard, in alluding to the proposed Convention of the Union soldiers and sailors at Cleveland, on the 17th September, says:

"These soldiers are honest, but verdant."

Then they have one characteristic, which shifting politicians and demagogues have not. If they were honest, the people could forgive their verdancy. But these soldiers are not half as verdant or wicked as those who think the American people are ready to leave the management of the government longer to the Radicals. They would destroy every vestige of a Republican government, by blotting out all the reserved rights of the States and the liberties of the people.

THE Williamston Expositor calls upon Gov. Worth to interpose in behalf of a young man by the name of Blow, from Pitt County, who was arrested by the military authorities for a battery upon a freedman, while under civil bonds, and subsequent to Gen. Robertson's late order. The attention of the Governor having been previously called to the same matter, he at once addressed Gen. Robertson on the subject. He has been assured that the arrest was an error, for which the Commanding General expresses his regret. Mr. Blow is no longer in military custody.

General Custar Denounces Forney.

Everybody in the South knows General Custar by reputation. In a letter which he published in the Washington Republican and Intelligencer yesterday, he thus speaks of Forney:

"Prominent in this misrepresentation and willful preversion of truth is the organ controlled and edited by yourself, and were it not for the official position which you hold, I would not deem myself justified in referring to you or anything emanating from you.

"I will not refer to the seditious and inflammatory epithets you applied to that (Philadelphia) Convention, of which I am proud to have been a member, but will only class them with your in sidious and wicked harangues pronounced in the city of Philadelphia during the sitting of the Convention, in which you endeavored to stir the passions of what you supposed a mob to deeds of violence and blood. Neither will I occupy time in exposing your baseness in characterizing those gallant soldiers of the Union who took part in the Convention as being influenced by any but the highest, noblest, and most patriotic impulses which govern the human will. Much less were they, as you insinuate, tinctured with disloyalty. Such unwarranted, unjust, unprovoked assertions come from you with bad grace, when directed against those who, during the entire war, have freely and unselfishly perilled their lives to restore, defend, and perpetuate the principles of a constitutional government which you are laboring to destroy. What have you done or accomplished to justify you in maligning and traducing those whose patriotism has undergone the test of battle and is beyond impeachment?"

Stop Thief!

The plan of the light-fingered gentry, in shouting "stop thief!" when running from officers of justice, was a very ingenious one when new, but has long since become stale and unprofitable. It is, therefore, quite useless for the Radicals to attempt to blind the country any further by their insane and distorted versions of their New Orleans stupid but bloody experiment at revolution and wholesale massacre.—That irresistable policeman, public sentiment, has already overtaken and collared the villainous offender, Radicalism, turned his dark lantern upon him, rifled the contents of his pocket, and found so many proofs of guilt upon him that all the rascal's shouting and protestations can now be of no avail.

Why, only look at the following murderous list of weapons and false instruments, and tell us if any fellow caught with such upon him could mean anything but mischief, and was not rightly pounced upon. BOUTWELL's speech in the house of Representatives, foreshadowing and inviting the riot; N. P. BANKS' ditto; the revolutionary meetings and harangues in New Orleans by DOSTIE, HAHN & Co.; the arming and parading of insolent and mutinous negroes through the principal streets of the city; the simultaneous gathering of similar bodies of armed Africans in various other large cities of the South; and, though last, not least dangerous, the incendiary teachings of a Radical Congress and a Radical press during the last half year of horrible misrule.—New York World.

GENERAL NEWS.

A PRUSSIAN SENTINEL.—A story is told of a Prussian sentinel stationed on the steeple at Troppau, and left behind there when his company retreated. The citizens attempted to take him prisoner, but the Prussian easily defended with his bayonet the narrow winding stair by which alone access could be gained to the steeple. They then decided on reducing him by famine, but the Prussian, having with him a good supply of cartridges, announced that unless he was regularly and well fed, he would shoot every one who passed in the streets around the church. The good soldier thus contrived to maintain his position for two days, when Troppau was re-occupied by the Prussians and he was relieved.

"Perley," in his despatch from Philadelphia to the Boston Journal, speaking of the visit paid by the delegates from South Carolina to the Massachusetts delegation, says:

"Then General Custer came in, and was introduced to Gen. McGowan of the Confederate army. After cordially shaking hands Custer said: "General—We have been looking at each other often during the war through field glasses and amid the smoke of battle. If we can now shake hands, these civilians who have stayed at their homes in safety surely could."

It was generally remarked that Mr. Stanton was not present on Saturday, when the President delivered his speech in reply to Mr. Johnson. But his absence was taken as corroborative of the well-settled understanding that he does not heartily support the President and his restoration policy.

Facts vs. Theories.

"Give me a place to rest my lever on," says Archimedes, "and I will move the world." "Give me pure and unadulterated drugs," says Medicus, of the olden time, "and I will cure disease."

In one sense, both of these learned pundits were the veriest charlatans. They knew there was no place to rest their lever on, either to move the world or cure disease. Mechanism was in a backward state, and the medical profession was but another name for sorcery, and all the adjuncts of magic filters and charms of the "evil eye," &c.

But these latter days have borne unto us something more than even superstition and its crew ever dreamt of in their maddest philosophy. In these days of practical science, what was theory of yesterday is fact to day, and all the old time notions become as bubbles in the sun, and burst and break with evey breath we draw.

Let Archimedes shoulder his lever and we will find a resting place for it to move the world. Let mine ancient Medicus pant and toil no more for the drugs he sorely needs, for we have them at our hand, ever ready to serve them at his beck.

Refined in the laboratory of Dr. Maggiel, the finest materials known in the medical profession are obtainable by any one. His Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills stand unrivalled, and his Salve operates with magical effect upon burns, scalds, and all sores and ulcers of the skin.

In fact, we think MAGGIEL's Pills and salve are the wonder of this century, and we are happy in the thought that many others of our brethren of the craft agree with us. We would earnestly counsel that all families provide themselves with Dr. Maggiel's Preparations at once, and keep them ready at hand, so as to use them at the most opportune time and as occasion serves.—Valley Sentinel.

The Raleigh Standrd says the Editor of the Petersburg Index ought to be executed for treason. The Index thinks a mad dog killed in Raleigh, a few days ago, bit Holden. We think it more likely he bit himself. One Thousand Dollars Reward

IS OFFERED FOR THE APPREHENSION OF THE persons who, on the night of the 9th. inst., murdered Mr. John A. Cutchin, and robbed the store of Messrs. Garrett & Cutchin, at this place. About Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars in national currency were taken, and about Ten Dollars in Specie, besides a Double Case Silver Watch and the money taken from the pockets of the murdered man.

Suspicion rests on a young man who was working in the immediate vicinity, but who left the day after. He calls himself "William Bailey," says he has recently returned from Point Lookout; is about six feet high, slender, with dark hair, and with dark, though thin moustache; shaven immediately under the nose. He has "Sailor marks" on his arms made with ink, especially on his right arm. Says he ran away from his parents when 12 years old. Claims to have had a home in Hyde County. All persons are requested to arrest this man, or to forward to this place any information which may lead to his arrest and conviction. Address A. BRASWELL, at this place.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite attention to the copartnership notice and card of Dancy, Hyman & Co., No. 80 Cedar St., New York. The old firm was one of the most liberal and enterprising in the city, and it will not suffer, in either particular, from the accession of our friend Col. Jos. H. Hyman, of Edgecombe. We commend the firm to our Southern merchants and producers.

The 59th. annual session of the School of Medicine, in the University of Maryland, will commence in Baltimore on the 15th. of October.

The Superintendent of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad calls the attention of shippers to the great through freight air line.

WE ARE PLEASED to learn that "Bingham's Latin Grammar" is in the hands of a first class publishing house, who will have it out, in the best style, within a few weeks.

AMONG the arrivals at the Exchange Hotel, this morning, we notice the names of the Hon. A. S. Merrimon and Col. S. D. Pool.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, August 21st and 22nd.—C. F. Klapp, Graham, N. C; J. D. Staunton, Fayetteville; Thos. Hogan, Fendal Southerland, N. C; W. J. Hawkins, Warren; Dr. Crudup, Franklin; J. B. Batchelor, Warrenton; D. Sellers, G. W. Norwood, N. C; N. G. Pittman, Tarboro'; J. H. Anderson, Mrs. Linebery and servant, Fayetteville; J. A. Betting, Yadkin; P. S. Sinclair, Charlotte.

A MAN SHOT BY HIS DOG.—Mr. John Cole, of Johnston county, recently went to the house of his neighbor, Mr. Nathan Williams, to go a-hunting. While standing in the yard, with his gun by his side and his dog playing about him, and jumping up on him, the dog accidentally struck his foot against the hammer of the gun and fired it off,—the shot entering the left of Mr. Cole's abdomen, and travelling upward along the left side and coming out at the shoulder. At last accounts Mr. Cole was alive, but his ultimate recovery is considered doubtful.

REV. DR. G. W. SAMSON, President of the Columbian College, Washington, D. C., will visit Wilmington next week, and has consented to deliver his famous lectures on his travels in the East, for the benefit of the First Baptist Church.

FIRE IN SMITHFIELD.—On Sunday morning last, about 11 o'clock, A. M., the kitchen to the house owned by Mrs. Hobbs, in Smithfield, and occupied by her mother, Mrs. A. B. Northam, and herself, was found to be in flames. The fire had so far progressed, when discovered, that it was impossible to save the dwelling or out houses, which were entirely consumed. By the prompt endeavors of the citizens, however, everything that the dwelling contained was saved.

At the same time that these houses were burning, a dense smoke was seen in the direction of Millchener's depot, which, it has since been ascertained, proceeded from the burning of the house of Mr. Millener, Agent of the N. C. Railroad Company. It was entirely destroyed.

A MATTER TO LOOK TO.—Our Northern friends will perhaps get an insight into the present condition of Southern society, and the necessity for a friendly policy towards the whites of the South, when we inform them that the County of Wake, alone, is now mulcted in a tax of about $1,800 per year, to pay jail fees, and other expenses of arresting and punishing negroes for stealing and other offences. Three-fourths of this sum must come out of the white people of the County, besides the loss of their goods, &c.

FIRE IN SALISBURY.—We learn, from the Old North State, that about 3 o'clock, on Sunday morning, a frame building, near the Court House, and immediately South of St. Luke's Church, Salisbury, belonging to John I. Shaver, Esq., but occupied by Mr. Aldrich as a dwelling house, was discovered to be on fire. The building, with a small out-house, was entirely consumed. Scarcely anything was saved from the building, and Mr. Aldrich and family were left with a very scanty supply of wearing apparel.

PROF. KERR'S Lecture in Salisbury is highly spoken of. It was, says the Banner, a plain, practical discourse, principally upon the subject of Petroleum,—its history, properties, location and probable origin.

THE NATIONAL BANK AFFAIR IN NEWBERN.—The Newbern papers contain accounts of the investigation, before the Mayor, into the alleged conspiracy to rob the National Bank of that place and murder the Cashier, H. C. Lee, who was, at the close of the war, a Captain in the 99th N. Y. Vol. Infantry, and lately doing business there on South Front street, as a wholesale liquor merchant, and one John White, known as Capt. White, not long since keeping a stall in the market, were the parties implicated in the affair.

The evidence appears to be conclusive. The principal witness was one Rolly Wilcox, who deposed as follows:

"I am leader of a band of musicians at the lower dance house. I know Capt. Lee, and Capt. White, but have not been acquainted with them long. A few days ago, Capt. White took me aside and asked me if I wanted to make a fortune. I told him I guessed I did. He said that he could show me a man that would put me in the way of it. I told him I would like to see the man, when he replied, that when he met him with me he would give me a private signal by which I would know him. The next day when going along by the depot, Capt. White, pointing to Capt. Lee, who was walking along there, said that is the man I was telling you about. I had an interview with Capt. Lee, who told he could show me where there was $80,000, in this town, and how to get it. He said it was in the National Bank, and that he would go into the Bank that evening about 8 o'clock and get out Mr. Eldridge and Mr. Benson, and take them down to the Club House or his own house and treat them to a supper, and while he way away with them, I was to go into the bank and shoot the Cashier. I would find the key in the large safe or in the Cashier's pocket, and I should then open the safe and put the money in an oat sack, which he (Captain Lee) would furnish me with, which I was to fill with money and then make my escape through the rear of the building and take the money up to his house where Mr. Eldridge and Mr. Benson would then be. I was to carry it into the back yard. The next evening, which was Friday last, I met Capt. Lee at the corner of Middle and Pollock streets. I then went with him to the tree opposite the Bank, and I asked him why he did not go in. He said "it is too late to get the men out, and we will have to wait till to-morrow evening, when we will all be on hand and carry the thing out." I told him I would not shoot the Cashier, but kill him with a club, as that would make no noise, and he said, "Oh, that is just the thing." (Here the prisoner, John White, became so ill that he was permitted to retire to the adjoining room in the Police Office.) I let the matter go so far because I was afraid to disclose the matter for fear that Capt. Lee or Capt. White would put out my lamp. I told two of my friends, George Brown and Patrick Kelly, who are clerks for Mr. Martin McNamara, all about it."

Other witnesses coroborated the testimony of Wilcox, and evidence was introduced, on the part of the defence, as to the previous good character of Lee while in the army.

The Court bound over the accused to the Superior Court,—Lee in the sum of $1,000, and White in the sum of $250.

ANOTHER AFFRAY IN MORGANTON.—We learn from passengers by the Western train last evening, that Morganton has been the scene of another serious affray. On Sunday last, a difficulty arose between Capt. Junius Tate, and a Mr. Corpening, recently a Director of the Western Rail Road. Corpening struck Capt. Tate, whereupon Tate stabbed him several times with a pocket knife, which he had in his hand at the time the difficulty commenced. The wounds were at first considered mortal, but last advices reported Corpening improving. Capt. Tate was arrested.—Salisbury Banner.

"Religious History of the Army of Northern Virginia."

To Chaplains, Missionaries, Colporteurs, or Christian Soldiers of the late Army of Northern Virginia:

You may have seen in the religious papers a request that material be sent the undersigned to aid him in preparing a religious history of our noble army. There have been many responses to that appeal, and valuable material has been secured; but I am anxious to obtain the fullest data from which to write a sketch of the wonderful dealings of the Lord with that army, and make another appeal for aid in the preparation of the work. The religious element in the Army of Northern Virginia was so strong that almost every Christian connected with it could give some interesting incidents illustrating the power of the Gospel among our soldiers. I want

(1.) Detailed accounts of the religious history of particular commands, embracing such points as how the command was supplied with preaching, number of prayer meetings, bible classes, &c., tract distribution, revivals, number of professions of conversions, &c., &c.

(2.) The genuineness and permanence of the work: what evidence the young converts gave of vital piety; how they deported themselves in the hour of death; whether those who returned home have still maintained their profession; how many will devote themselves to the ministry, &c., &c.

(3.) The effect of the religious interest on the general morale of the army—its discipline, courage, and general efficiency. Anything going to illustrate the above or similar points would be most thankfully received. It may not be improper to add that, as the undersigned purposes to devote half the proceeds of his book to the education of soldier's orphans, and the other half to other benevolent objects, he appeals with the more confidence to those who were his comrades and co laborers in that glorious army to aid him in placing on record a detailed account of the most wonderful religious history the world ever witnessed.

The undersigned has undertaken this at the earnest suggestion of chaplains and others, for whose opinions he has high respect, and would be grateful for any assistance, or for any suggestions as to the plan of the work, &c., from any quarter.

Mass Ratification Meeting to be held in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The delegates from this district to the late Philadelphia Convention, and others, had a meeting to night, and decided to hold an immense mass ratification meeting on Saturday next in front of the City Hall. Committees were appointed to make the necessary arrangements, and the adjoining counties of Maryland will be invited to participate.

AND YET ANOTHER RADICAL TO BE RETIRED.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:

"I can state, upon equally as good authority and certainty, that Gen. Howard will soon be superseded as superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau. Several military officers of good record, who, like Gen. Howard, have lost a limb in the service, and who are his equals, if not his superiors, in ability and intelligence, are named as his successor. Gen. Tillson, chief of the Bureau in Georgia, is most favorably considered, and will likely get the position."

THE SPHYGMOGRAPH.—This is a new invention for measuring and recording on paper the action of the human pulse. The principal idea of it is, that the short arm of a light lever is applied to the pulse, and at the end of the long arm is a very delicate pencil, which passes over a roll of paper, which roll moves by clockwork, similar to what is seen in telegraph offices.—The effect is that, instead of a straight line being made on the paper, a wavy one is produced by the expansions and contractions of the pulse, and this line differs according to the age, health and disease of the patient. Some very interesting results and discoveries have been made by the use of this instrument, as phenomena which it would be impossible to detect in the ordinary way are clearly written on paper.

SOMETHING NEW
UNDER THE SUN.
A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy. I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and anybody can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
142 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters.

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

MAGGIEL'S CHILLS AND FEVER PILLS!
Maggiel's Fever and Ague Pills!
MAGGIEL'S FEVER AND AGUE PILLS!!

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of
are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.
They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of One Pill Three Times A Day, before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.
To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,
A Box Will be sent Free
If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.
Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St.
New York.

CAUTION.
Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

$50 REWARD.
Stolen out of my Stables, at my residence in Northampton County, near Murfreesboro, N. C., on the night of the 31st. July last, a LIGHT BAY HORSE, rather raw boned, with both hind feet white and a knot or wen on the inside of the right hind leg, between the hock-joint and thigh.
Said Horse is supposed to have been stolen by a freedman, calling himself Albert Graham, and who said that he formerly belonged to Col. Graham, of Charlotte, N. C., and he may have taken the horse with him towards or to that place. He is a tall black negro, and wore, the day he left here, a long yellow linen duster.
I will pay the above reward of fifty dollars for the delivery of the horse to me, or information that will lead to his recovery.

IMPORTANT SALE
IN WILSON NORTH CAROLINA
THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of WILSON FEMALE SEMINARY,
to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.
The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1859, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.
The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.
Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.
TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.
JOSHUA BARNES, President.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON. D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

BUCKEYE SULKY PLOW.

Being impressed with the necessity, and importance of economy in farming, I am happy to have it in my power to furnish to farmers at manufacturers prices the BUCKEYE COTTON & CORN CULTIVATOR OR SULKEY PLOW.

It is certainly the greatest improvement of the age in agricultural implements.

It will, with two horses and one hand, cultivate as much land, and do it as well, as four horses and four hands in the usual way; and the plower can either walk or ride at pleasure; which enables old or decripped men, who cannot follow the common plow to execute the work as well as the most robust.

It is manufactured by R. Sinclair & Co., Baltimore, at $70, and is the cheapest plow in use, because of the great saving in hands, teams and provisions. For further information upon the subject, address,

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va., Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R E COLSTON,
